

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

In the matter of:

MARK J. CUYLER

Debtor

RALPH T. SKELTON, JR.,
Trustee

Plaintiff

OAKWOOD ACCEPTANCE CORPORATION
and MARK J. CUYLER

Defendants

BANKRUPTCY NO.
287-00412

ADVERSARY PROCEEDING
NO. 287-0040

DEFAULT ORDER

FILED

at 11 O'clock & 40 min A

Date 1/26/88

MARY C. ELLISON, CLERK
United States Bankruptcy Court
Savannah, Georgia

It appearing to the Court that the Defendant, Oakwood Acceptance Corporation, having failed to respond by formal pleadings to the complaint, and the matter being in default,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, that the perfection of the security interest of the Defendant, Oakwood Acceptance Corporation, constitutes a voidable preference, that such security interest hereby is declared void, that the interest of the trustee is superior, and,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Defendant, Oakwood Acceptance Corporation, is required to surrender to the trustee the certificate of title upon the 1987 Oakwood/Celebration I mobile home, and that the Defendant, Oakwood Acceptance Corporation, execute the lien release upon said certificate of title.

Dated at Brunswick, Georgia,
This 21 day of January, 1988.

Lamar W. Davis, Jr.
United States Bankruptcy Judge

00001